

Events & Publicity Officers

Support recruitment events / create publicity material / help plan kids' events / organise volunteer events

You will join a team of students who are enthusiastic to develop a community for our volunteers. This role is ideal for students with an interest in building a volunteer community through events and projects. You will also support staff to recruit and support new volunteers throughout the year. We're looking for students who are able to take the initiative and make a valuable contribution within a team. As a member of the student committee, you will be able to contribute to a range of exciting projects to support volunteers!

You will:

- Support staff recruiting new volunteers at your university college, department and faculty
- Create publicity material to help recruit volunteers and raise our profile
- Organise initiatives and events to build a volunteer community for Jacari volunteers
- Liaise with student organisations who have similar aims
- Help organise kids' events
- Be a Jacari rep for your college or department.
- Attend regular committee meetings and support other committee projects.

Express interest here before the 14th May

Email oxford@jacari.org if you have any questions about joining the Jacari Oxford Student Committee 2023-24.
